Three story connector section adjoins rear 2 story brick ell and front section of house. Fireplaces located on first and second floors only, both rooms in front section of house.
3. This Victorian house is characteristic of the last stage of row-house evolution in the Ridgely's Delight area. Materials and detailing are relatively restrained in harmony with the modest means of the neighborhood inhabitants. The scale of the 3 story house is consistent along Washington Boulevard, and helps define an intimate streetscape between Fremont Avenue and Russell Street.
